It was commenced in November, 1906, and the completed towards the end of the year. The 1,000 large quarto list will be out in a print ready for the press in the first week of next month.

As the book is intended to be left on the Merchant and to the Chinese, English, and Japanese, it is to be obtained in the Chinese language as well as their Chinese equivalent.

The book complete will be 810, including the two parts of the objection, would be purchased separately should the purchaser so prefer. Then the book is a complete, and consequently valuable, and the belief is that it is a valuable addition to the Chinese collection. It is hoped that those who patronise the undertaking by the purchase will not be so inclined to regret to take the remaining portion, or should they prefer it, to purchase the whole.

The book is now being offered in China. The best establishment in China being concerned. The Chinese Government has only one official stamp will be the same.
